Cashmere Wool.

Mr. John Minto publishes the following in the Record:

I notice in your issue of December 3d, a short statement from the Stockton Independent to the effect that the Independent had received some very fine samples of Cashmere wool, said to have been taken from Cotswold buck lambs. The publication of such items of general information is proof that the subject is a matter of public interest. It seems to me that we should have a more general knowledge of the different properties of wool, and that those properties should be so named and classified as to give a more general and correct knowledge of the particular properties that give the highest value to the different kinds of wool. —There is now much confusion, even among comparatively well-informed men, upon this subject, and the statements copied from the Independent go to show the fact.

The uninformed reader of that item would be led to believe that the Cotswold wool in question so nearly resembles the wool of which the Cashmere shawls are made, as to be equal to it. Such is not the case. According to the best authorities quoted by Mr. Israel S. Diehl, in Report of the Department of Agriculture for 1863, pp. 216-229.

The real Cashmere goat has a double fleece, consisting principally of long, fine hair, with an undercoat of very fine, short, grayish [illegible]. The amount of this wool yield from each goat is stated to be but from two to three ounces, and this is combed out of the hair [illegible], on the approach of warm weather," all the "long hairs carefully picked out," when it is "bleached upon the grass, carded for springing and three times dyed, to impart to it its brilliant lustre." This kind of wool has been the most successfully imitated by the use of the finest long staple Merino. French [illegible], the patronage of the government, have been for years engaged in the establishment of [illegible] which they style the [illegible], i. e., a cross between the [illegible] and Merino. The accompanying samples, Nos. 1, 2 and 3, will give an idea of this kind of [illegible] from which [illegible] by [illegible] at the Exhibition held at Paris in 1855, equal to Cashmere in point of softness and [illegible], and superior on "account of its regularity of [illegible]."

The goats' hair for which the wool of the Cotswold sheep can be used as a substitute, or mixed with and used as an imitation of, is the hair of Angora or Thibet goats, and the hair of the Alpaca, formed into [illegible] hair shawls, mohair, [illegible], and [illegible] cloths [illegible] fabrics, the length, strength, and [illegible] are as important even than [illegible] of fiber. You will see this clearly by comparing the [illegible] samples of Cotswold wool, with the [illegible] miscalled Cashmere, but [illegible] hair. Mr. Diehl—above alluded to, is now on his way from Asia, with 200 head of these miscalled Cashmere, but really Angora goats, [illegible] for the Department of Agriculture.

On account of the rapidly growing demand for the classes of goods I have alluded to, and the great consumption of braids and [illegible], in the manufacture of which America [illegible] is just beginning, [illegible] to be a wide field open for American breeders of such stock to furnish the raw material of such [illegible] in the most perfect and economical [illegible]. We of Oregon may [illegible] long way [illegible] manufacture, but the making of [illegible] and worsted braids is conducted in the [illegible] States, by importation of the [illegible] from England, and [illegible] the Pacific coast. We are making a large proportion of our heavy woolens here; the lighter goods of all-wool delaines and merinoes, and for light [illegible] are used here in [illegible] as a [illegible], and should also be made here. Even if they are not, I think it will pay our stock raisers to keep [illegible] attention turned toward the [illegible] the longest, softest, and brightest of the English long wools, are at the head of the list of [illegible]. You will see, by comparing the [illegible] with the cotswold, that [illegible]. We need this difference more clearly [illegible] more profits now [illegible], and then that stock raisers should breed more persistently toward one or the other most valuable type.

A Tainted Plea.

[From the San Francisco Chronicle]

While there are many things in the President's Message that we most heartily approve, and especially his wise and just [illegible] the national finances (which we [illegible] to the studious consideration of the demoralized [illegible] economics of the Call,) there is one point in regard to which he has allowed [illegible] in the spirit of a special pleader, [illegible] of a high-minded statesman. He comments at what he has to say about the "Tenure of Office Bill" in the following words: "It is well and [illegible] known that enormous frauds have been [illegible] trated on the treasury, and colossal fortunes have been made at the public expense. [illegible] of corruption has [illegible], is increasing, and if not diminished, will soon bring us into total ruin and disgrace. The public creditors and tax-payers are alike interested in an honest administration of the finances, and neither class will long endure the high-handed robbery of the [illegible]. For this discreditable state of things there are several "causes." Of these "several causes" the President intimates that the "Tenure of Office Bill" is the chief, by almost entirely destroying official accountability, inasmuch as "the President may be thoroughly convinced that an officer is incapable, dishonest, or unfaithful to the Constitution," and yet have no power to remove said officer. "The utmost the President can do," says Mr. Johnson pathetically, "is to complain to the Senate, and ask the privilege of supplying his place with a better man." This is a very lame plea, Mr. President, and with all due respect for your Excellency, we must be pardoned for saying that it has a disagreeably shabby look. It is not half as ingenious as your "constitutional argument," self-contradictory and absurd as that is, when considered in the light of fundamental principles. You complain of "enormous frauds," of "colossal fortunes made at the public expense" by corrupt officials. There is reason for your complaint. But who appointed these "corrupt officials?" Did not your Excellency choose them? And moreover, did you not choose them more with reference to politics, to your difficulties with Congress, to your own political purposes, than to their personal fitness in other respects? We fear that to all these questions, no true answer but an affirmative one can be rendered. But since these appointments and since the development of the frauds and abuses you complain of, why have you made no application to the Senate for the removal of those whom you suspected? Did your pride prevent you from "complaining to the Senate," or did you wish to have in this corruption and robbery, another ground of accusation against Congress, another piece of electioneering capital to use in your political warfare? Upon the whole, your Excellency, we do not think that the more intelligent, even of your own most devoted partisans will consider your point against the Tenure of Office Bill, "well taken." Your spiritual adviser, the Rev. Nasby, might perhaps approve it; but your legal adviser, the squirrel-witted Stanbery, would object to it, not indeed because it is a shabby dodge, but because it is such a transparent one; not because it is bad, but because it is bold. If the plea is "tainted," so much the more reason for its being "seasoned" and made at least plausible, since

"The world is still deceived with ornament;
In law, what plea so tainted and corrupt,
But being seasoned with a gracious voice,
Obscures the shadow of evil?"

Owing to the great depression of trade in Dundee, Scotland, about a dozen of the flax spinning mills have been put on short time, viz: forty hours instead of sixty, per week, while in some other works one-third of the machinery was stopped.

Elder Miles Grant, editor of the World's Crisis, in Boston, in a late lecture admitted the phenomena of spiritualism, but rejected the assigned cause. He thinks they are caused by the spirit of demons, who are "the angels that sinned."

The Railroad Report.

For some time it has been going abroad through the State that Portland was unfriendly to all railroad enterprises, and preferred to keep things in the old channels rather than lend assistance to any of the proposed schemes to facilitate transportation. [illegible] of this kind have frequently [illegible] in the State press. The same thing has often been [illegible] a subject of remark by people in various towns in the State; and we have, within the last two years, received numerous letters which were written under the same impression and burdened with the same complaint. The supposition [illegible] to have been that Portland was afraid that, in case a railroad system should be put in operation throughout the State, changes would be made in the [illegible] of trade which would operate to her [illegible]. Only a short time ago we [illegible] an article in the San Francisco Times, [illegible] by an Oregonian, accusing Portland of [illegible] to a dog-in-the-manger policy and [illegible] that she [illegible] no railroads [illegible] Washington and Yamhill counties [illegible] have of late frequently [illegible] that Portland [illegible] to any scheme which [illegible] the development of the State or of any part of it, we could not cite those who [illegible] to any public action by [illegible] of this [illegible] directly to the [illegible] of any of the railroad schemes on [illegible] in any of the [illegible] of this sort which have been [illegible] the last year. But we are gratified [illegible] has now been [illegible] by our citizens [illegible] parts of the [illegible] will be [illegible] by the report which is [illegible] Portland, instead of being unfriendly [illegible] of the railroad projects which [illegible] will not be a whit behind other [illegible] for the building up of a State, [illegible] as an expression of the [illegible], and as such it cannot but [illegible] the State. As regards the [illegible] clear that a [illegible] one side of the river would be of [illegible], and both sides equally [illegible] the opinion is [illegible] in the report that a road [illegible] each side of the river, [illegible] with a single line reaching [illegible] position to [illegible] by the [illegible] authority to submit to the [illegible] the propriety of taking [illegible] one million [illegible] for the construction of the Portland [illegible]. The State aid, [illegible] on equal [illegible] side of the [illegible] ought to be satisfied [illegible] as it will be.

The [illegible] of the Salt Lake and Portland [illegible] of the [illegible] Pacific road is declared to be [illegible] of [illegible] importance to Oregon. It is [illegible] that as between this project and that [illegible] the [illegible] terminating on [illegible] of opinion in [illegible] look [illegible] from the head of the [illegible] valley to the [illegible] in favor of that [illegible] while the [illegible] that the Salt [illegible] do more to give us a [illegible] may be urged as a [illegible] in favor of that [illegible]. The [illegible] is also favored in the [illegible] and of all the transcontinental lines it [illegible] that this one is of far greater importance to the whole Northern coast than any [illegible]. But it might be well to ask ourselves what [illegible] is that a Government subsidy [illegible] for which this [illegible]. It appears to us that there is [illegible]. Our people ought to look at [illegible] in a practical way, and in this age of [illegible] theories out of view. None of the [illegible] or branch lines can be built without [illegible], and if we ask too much we are likely to obtain nothing. This is not written in the [illegible] of one road or another; our only de[illegible] the [illegible] be pursued which will be most likely to lead to definite results. As [illegible] valley [illegible], we believe there is [illegible] of opinion; and there would [illegible] to be no [illegible] why, with proper effort, capital [illegible] to [illegible].

[illegible] to Recover Everything.—That the [illegible] of the South expect to recover everything they lost is evidenced by the spirit of [illegible] which they manifest, and by the course they are taking in anticipation of a change of [illegible] favor. The Philadelphia Press remarks that the [illegible] in the South has [illegible] a wider range than Andrew Johnson ever [illegible]. Those who doubted that the rebels [illegible] ever attempt to regain their lost cause [illegible] to do so by the Northern elections, [illegible] they [illegible]. The rebels [illegible] look to recover everything, beginning with [illegible] for their slaves. Wigfall and [illegible] are in London collecting [illegible] of the [illegible] debt in British hands, so as to [illegible] the South, remitted to all her [illegible] to pay her share of the national [illegible] are acknowl[illegible]. Herschel V. Johnson is engaged to recover damages for the cotton tax paid into the [illegible] on the ground of its unconstitutionality, and this even while he and his associates are whining for its [illegible]. The number of [illegible] for damages presented by these various [illegible]. They are not only besieging the [illegible], but the courts; and the rally against the confiscation laws has become almost as fashionable as that against the negroes.

The [illegible] of the Atlanta (Ga.) Era thus candidly [illegible] the situation, and makes a significant [illegible]:

A pack of fools (of whom we were one) got the [illegible] into a war, and now a pack of like fools are resolved to keep her in hot water till the end of [illegible] if the people [illegible] it [illegible] to do so.

The Pacific Christian Advocate says truly: "If no [illegible] can prosper, without pandering to the appetites of the besotted and [illegible], then is it demonstrated that the American people are incapable of self-government."

Leaders Sent to the Rear.

It is very noticeable, as one of the consequences of the position which the Democratic party held during the rebellion, that it does not dare now to put forward for office those who at that time were prominently connected with it. It rejects such as made themselves conspicuous in opposing the war for the Union, and brings before the people as candidates those who did not deny the right of the Government to "coerce" the rebels. The Copperhead-secession element is studiously kept in the back-ground; not because the party has changed its principles, but because it wants power and is ready to do anything to obtain success. The "Old Guard" are told that they must keep in the rear; that their time has not yet come; that it would be fatal to the prospects of the party for them to be seen in the lead. A few examples will illustrate how the fuglemen have managed it. In Connecticut last April the Democrats rejected all their representative men and nominated English for Governor, a man who had supported the war, and who, while in Congress, had voted for the Amendment to abolish slavery. In California, their candidate for Governor was a man who had been a life-long Abolitionist and a supporter of the war for the Union. In New York their candidate for the leading office was a man who like English of Connecticut, had, while in Congress, voted for the emancipation amendment. Casserly, who is chosen Senator in California, is a man who, during the war, had no sympathy with the Copperheadism that made infamous nine-tenths of the party which has elected him. Their object in making him Senator is to endeavor to bind to the party the so-called "Conservatives," who openly threatened to bolt in case a representative Democrat was elected. It is a signal proof of the infamy of that party that it dares not bring forward its representative men for official positions; that it is trying to disguise itself so as to appear less odious, and that its chances for success consist in abandoning its old leaders and the doctrine of State rights,—the only doctrine which ever gave it a distinctive character,—and resolving in its platforms that the Federal Government is the paramount Government of the country.

A "Journeyman Editor."

Poor old Beriah says that "no newspaper in the United States ever attained a respectable standing but by the personal character of its editor." By this remark he unwittingly informs his readers how it happens that the San Francisco Press, the Oregon Herald, and certain papers of which he was editor while in Michigan and Wisconsin, never had any influence or respectability. Beriah having no personal character, and wandering up and down the world like any other unknown and worthless vagabond,—hiring his services to any establishment which might chance to need an editor, and which would be satisfied with egotism, ignorance, mendacity and "cheek" as the only necessary qualifications in the person so employed,—it is not strange that the journals which he has controlled never "attained a respectable standing." From the time when New England, much to her discredit, let him loose upon the world, he has been pursuing his journey over the country, only stopping long enough in one place to make himself known, and, as a [illegible], to "play himself out" and affect the newspaper which was so unfortunate as to employ his services; then removing to some other locality to repeat the same performance, and make it necessary for him to move again. In this way he has journeyed, establishing a "character" and destroying newspapers in his progress, until he has completed the circuit of the continent. But no newspaper of influence or of respectable standing has ever employed him; and had he even [illegible] in securing a position on such a paper, it would soon have met the fate of the nameless sheets which he has [illegible] in oblivion. After having lived this lived this life of vagabondism, he is brought here, an object of charity, by a joint stock association, and put at work upon their newspaper in the hope that, by [illegible] utterly unknown, he might for a time [illegible]. He puts his name at the head of the paper as editor, writes columns of twaddle about himself and declares that no paper can have character or standing unless it follows his style; when every person knows that there is not a respectable journal in the United States which does the like. And this is the creature who assails the editorial character of newspapers which have lived, flourished and [illegible] reputation while he has been wandering as a "journeyman editor" through the country, hiring his services to anybody who would employ him!

A Democratic Judgment.—The Idaho World, though greatly pleased with the President's message, cannot avoid remembering that Johnson has not always been so good a Democrat as now. We quote from the World's criticism:

It is greatly to be regretted that Andrew Johnson, who now, as President, utters sentiments and expresses views so full of wisdom, and so replete with genuine republicanism, did himself, within the last seven years, as Senator, as Provisional Governor of Tennessee, and even as President, commit the very same class of transgressions and violations of the Constitution, and perpetrate the same usurpations of constitutional authority, equally evil in their tendency and operation, as the transgressions, violations and usurpations which he now so ably, convincingly and eloquently deprecates, mourns and condemns; that have been committed by the Radical party in Congress and in power.

Nothing is so clear as the truth that if the acts of Congress for which Johnson arraigns that body, are usurpations, his own acts from the time he took his stand against the rebels in 1860 until he threw himself into their arms in 1866, are equal usurpations. He cannot condemn Congress without condemning himself.

The "organ" is laboring hard to prove that General Grant is not a "Radical," but a true "Conservative," that the Republican party has no control over him, and that if nominated, he would not be a representative candidate of the party. Poor old Beriah has a remarkably short memory. But a little while ago he was assailing Grant for being a "Radical," calling him a "traitor" and all that sort of thing. About a month ago he said, that Grant, if nominated, would be worse beaten than Scott was in 1852; and now he says that the "Radicals" want to use Grant's "personal popularity" to maintain the power. Even the gullible Democracy will soon lose their faith in Beriah.

The Importance of Advertising.—The following pithy remarks we extract from the New York Journal of Commerce: A story is related of a merchant who made a choice of a husband for his daughter depend on which of her two suitors should write the best advertisement, which serves to illustrate the importance which is attached by [illegible] men to judicious advertising. In what "judicious" actually consists is not, however, so generally settled. Some think it is in arresting the people's attention and forcing them to read the advertising volens volens. Others aim to keep certain articles constantly before the public. Steady, uniform, and persistent advertising unquestionably benefits every man in business. Classes of men sometimes object to advertising. It is a remarkable fact that in New York lawyers think it rather unprofessional to advertise, except in cases of removal, change of firm or other special occurrence. They make a great error in this. There is not a year when there are not many persons in and out of New York, seeking legal advice, especially among merchants and business men, without any clue to assist them even in making inquiries. Merchants in regular business learn by experience the importance of using the columns of a commercial paper for the systematic announcement of their business.

A Nantucket urchin tied his mother's ball of yarn to a table-fork, and hove it into the cat. Puss spat and spattered and sounded down cellar; whereat the delighted young whaleman exclaimed: "Pay out, mother! Thunderation, pay out! I've got one iron into her!"

Spirit of the State Press.

The Salem Chronicle appears to be partially reconstructed, as it has been issued almost every day for a week past. The concern seems to have "taken in" a new partner or two, which no doubt accounts for its more frequent appearance and increased sprightliness. Its present style of writing comes almost up to that of the classic Courier, and is even ahead of that of Simple Sample. In order that its logic, grammar, elegance of expression and historical learning may be seen and appreciated by our readers, we publish the following from its leading editorial of Tuesday:

And it may be said, in truth, that had the elections gone in New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, for the bastardly so-called Union party, that the Jacobin Congress, under the rule and dictation of the impotent Sumner, the lascivious Thad. Stevens, the exceedingly anti-parsimonious and excessively gallant Benjamin F. Spoonthief, and a dozen or two more whose characters are equally seductive, would not only have preferred articles of impeachment against the so considered fortuitous Executive, in order to make sullied his honor, but would have suspended him from further exercise of the functions of his office, or so attempted, had they then been wanting in moral courage, to send him to the block, as did the Rump Congress of old Charles the Second, the the rightful King of England, amidst the acclaim of the murderous Psalm singers of the day, whose high moral conduct the present Congress is seeking to imitate in so large a degree.

This quite takes away the breath of the reader. It hurries him forward so that he has no time to stop and pity "old King Charles the Second," who, as the world is now informed for the first time, "was sent to the block by murderous psalm singers." The Chronicle has added a new chapter to the history of England; as it was never before related that the little misfortune of losing his head on the block happened to Charles the Second.

The Courier of this week has not yet been received; but we congratulate our readers that we are able to present an extract from its last week's issue which is quite up to the elevated tone of Democratic journalism in Oregon. Jasper's ethnological articles not having been received by the Abolition press with that consideration which he thinks they deserve, he "comes back" in this crushing style:

But it is in accordance with the imagined duty of such low, scurrilous fellows to use such terms as "copperhead," "traitor," etc., in speaking of gentlemen, though to such an extent have opprobrious epithets and scare-crow, horse-fiddle racket been used by the Rads that decent people at once recognise their twaddle as but the professional flab doodle of a thought-lacking, pumpkin-headed ink-slinger, without the ability to combat with reason, and, therefore, resorts to the weapon of the vanquished—calumny and balderdash.

This, in argument, reason and grammatical structure is even superior, judged by Democratic rules, to the extract just quoted from the Chronicle. The latter may hope by persistent effort, to be able shortly to imitate some of the excellences of the Courier's style; but to hope to surpass them is every expectation of folly.

As we anticipated a fortnight ago, the Democratic papers of the State are back, after a short respite, to the negro question. The struggle of that party to maintain its ascendency over the black race continues, though it is easy to see that the Democracy are in doubt about the result. The Albany Democrat returns to the charge with a column article head "Negro Equality," and its editor declares his unalterable determination never to submit to such associations. Why can he not stop to consider that he may be giving himself a vast amount of unnecessary trouble. He cannot [illegible] with negroes unless he wants to do so and they are willing to receive him into their society. Did he never reflect that the negroes might be unwilling to admit him? Did he never stop to think that there can be no social equality unless such association be agreeable to both parties? A little common sense would help these terrified Democrats out of the greatest difficulty that now besets them.

The Record makes the pertinent inquiry: "What does the Democratic party offer that can induce Union men to abandon the party to which the country owes its continued unity?" The same paper inquires further:

Has it ever denounced secession and declared the nation was right in the prosecution of war? Has it given any guarantee that the national debt, which gave us success over the rebel arms, shall be paid? Has it hymned the praise of the nation's heroes? Has it raised monuments to honor the nation's dead? Has it ever acquiesced in the abolition of slavery? When did it write the eulogy of Lincoln, of McPherson, Sedgwick, Lyon, Lytle, Sumner, Stevens, and the illustrious dead who, like them, died that the nation might live? The answer to all this is no and never. They have done and can do nothing that gives an honest republican confidence that they will administer the government in accordance with the principles we have learned to love and cherish.

The Unionist has an article headed, "Oregon and California Contrasted," in which "the general gone-to-wreck condition of interior California" is exhibited, and the following remarks made on the contrast which is afforded in Oregon:

While our sister State is presenting this melancholy aspect, Oregon shows the results of a steady prosperity. Her seaport has not outgrown the capacity of the interior, and both advance in a condition of healthy improvement. The worth of Oregon consists chiefly in its rich farms and extensive manufactories, and is distributed throughout the commonwealth; her best days are yet to come, and within the lifetime of the present generation, and will far excel California in substantial wealth.

As railroad matters are now being extensively canvassed, we copy the following from the Albany Journal:

During a few days past the Oregon public have been well plied with railroad abstractions. There are two Oregon Central Railroad companies, each are claiming land and aid from the State; and two or three more corporations have also been filed, organized to build railroads. But it is obvious to all sensible folks, until some route is located or some line settled upon, we will have no road. It is also quite clear that the Willamette valley cannot sustain a road on each side of the river, together with steamboat competition.

The great want of Oregon is cheaper transportation to the sea. A line through the valley to Portland only, would be of little advantage to the people; and if the State aid is given to such an enterprise, the land will be worse than wasted. A railroad should reach Astoria. The branch to the Pacific railroad from Portland to Humboldt valley will be of no service to the agricultural interests of Oregon, if not a positive disadvantage.

We want direct communication with Portland, Astoria, and San Francisco also; and this Humboldt valley branch will be a very expensive and tedious route—much more than our present facilities present. To build any road in Oregon, the means must come from abroad, and the feeble bickerings about routes will have no influence in the result. If Government will grant a subsidy in bonds, the road may be built—the land grant is of no avail to the purpose.

Gov. Burnside's thanksgiving proclamation is contained in thirteen lines. Big enough for little Rhodey.

Deserving of Confidence.—There is no article which so richly deserves the entire confidence of the community as "Brown's Bronchial Troches." The Troches have received flattering commendations from the most celebrated Clergymen, Lawyers and Public Speakers, who speak from personal experience. Those suffering from Asthmatic and Bronchial Diseases, Coughs and Colds, should try the Troches.

RECREATION AND AMUSEMENT.—It is necessary that mortals should have some amusement, and since our city is not blessed with an elegant theatre, or some place of innocent amusement, it is the duty of every man to see that his acquaintances coming to our city should at least be pleased, and how can you please them better than by taking them to KOHN & FISHEL'S, No. 91 Front street, to buy one of those handsome suits they keep for sale.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN is published this morning. It contains the latest telegraphic news from the East and California—a selection of the best articles appearing in THE DAILY OREGONIAN,—full and reliable news from the Mines, and the most copious commercial information published by any paper in the State.

The average amount of reading matter in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is double that published by any other journal in Oregon, and in the particular of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable more especially in matters pertaining to Oregon interests.

☞ Single copies 12½ cents, or $3 00 per year, to any part of the United States, or British Columbia.

THE TRAVELS OF AN UMBRELLA.—Last Saturday, a friend of ours went up to Oregon City, forgetting to take along his umbrella. Of course, under such circumstances, the clerk of the weather couldn't resist the temptation to rain. He did rain. Our friend met another friend and borrowed his umbrella. Of course, our friend, as was natural, forgot to return the umbrella and brought it home with him on Sunday. The next day or two, our [illegible], the borrower, received a note from our friend, the lender, in which the writer expressed his concern for his umbrella, thusly: "To be brief, what did you do with my umbrella?" Our friend, the borrower, thought it an unheard of proceeding on the part of the other to inquire after an umbrella, and that it was something of a hardship to be called to an account for his first "take" of the season. After thinking the matter over, however, he sat down and wrote, "To be brief, find inclosed a sum that will buy you a better one." The letter and the two-fifty were dispatched by mail, and our friend the borrower felt that he should not lie awake o' nights with the prickings of conscience. Next day, he received another note from our friend, the lender, in this wise: "To be brief, again, please find enclosed the funds you sent—that umbrella was a borrowed one—I from L. D., Esq.; he from O. & M. [illegible] from —, please return it to that firm, etc., and all's well, etc." To be brief, our friend the borrower, thinking that the shortest road out of the [illegible], went and delivered the umbrella to its original owner. And thus ended the travels of the umbrella and the travails of the various borrowers and lenders. This is the first instance on record in which an umbrella, once lost, ever returned to the lender.

HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES.—Of balls, parties, concerts, etc., in the city and vicinity, the holidays will not have a great number, but the character of those already announced are of the first order and will quite or more than compensate for the lack of those [illegible] small affairs. [illegible] will open M[illegible] evening with the Masquerade ball, [illegible] of the Turn Verein [illegible], which is expected to be a [illegible] affair. Then [illegible] the ball to be given by Protection Engine Co. to which [illegible] of invitation have been [illegible] to firemen and others of this city, [illegible], Oregon City and [illegible]. The [illegible] will undoubtedly be very large, perhaps as large as even Oro Fino Hall can [illegible]. The next entertainment on the [illegible] will be the Concert for the benefit of the Portland Library fund, by the Philharmonic Society. Nothing need be said by way of [illegible] to attend this entertainment, as the former [illegible] by this Society are still fresh in the memory of the public, and those who attended before will attend [illegible]. On New Years Eve, a grand ball will be given by the Alien Fire Co., at Vancouver, the proceeds to be [illegible] to the benefit of the company. This completes the [illegible] of public amusements of this character, so far as announced. There will doubtless be the usual [illegible] of private parties, dinners, Christmas trees, etc., but these are not matters of public mention.

A NEW MILL FOR THE WESTERN COMPANY.—A contract was [illegible] yesterday between the Oregon Iron Works and Oregon Central Railroad Co., providing for the construction of a very fine portable sawmill for the use of the [illegible] company. The mill will be operated by a twenty-horse power engine, running double saws, with cross cuts and everything complete, capable of cutting fifteen [illegible] feet of lumber in twelve hours, and costing four [illegible] dollars. The railroad company intend to use it in cutting ties, bridge timber, and other lumber necessary in the construction of the road. It is to be completed by the 1st of April. We also learn that the Iron Works Co. are subscribing [illegible] a very handsome donation of city lots. We are glad to see this interest manifested in the enterprise, as long as it does that Portland business men are willing to do a liberal part in aiding the road, which is already bringing business to our manufacturers.

INGENIOUS INVENTION.—Isaac Rogers of West Chehalem, Yamhill county, [illegible] a very ingeniously contrived machine for paring, coring and [illegible] apples, which [illegible] from any we have ever seen. The principal [illegible] of mention as something new, is a contrivance for pushing the core out of an apple and cutting it into several [illegible] as fast as they are pared. The [illegible] same as any other; but the coring and cutting apparatus takes the apple off the fork, and with one stroke finishes it. It is operated by a lever which is worked by the foot. The cores fall into one spout and the pieces of cut apple into another, and the only necessity there is for touching the apple during the whole process is to put it on the fork [illegible].

MULTNOMAH COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—Next Tuesday, the 24th inst. is the day to which the County Teachers' Institute for Multnomah county was postponed by Rev. G. H. Atkinson, the County School Superintendent. The meeting will take place at the Central School [illegible] in this city, we presume at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. It is important for the general [illegible] school [illegible] of the county that all the teachers, at least, and [illegible] friends of education as can, attend these convocations and participate in the proceedings. They serve to [illegible] teachers acquainted, not only with each other in [illegible], but with each other's peculiar modes of teaching, and to systematize the plans of [illegible].

"WOMEN OF THE WAR."—We acknowledge the receipt of a copy of this work from Trevett, the book agent. It is [illegible] printed and [illegible], and is an elegant book for the holidays. "The object of the work is to [illegible] and present narratives of the services in the war of some of the women who shared its perils and ought [illegible]. Their experiences are varied and [illegible] both sufferings and adventures, the narration of which cannot fail to warm the heart and excite admiration wherever they are read." The price is $4 00 to [illegible] according to style. J. C. Johns[illegible], canvassing [illegible] for Multnomah county, is now at work.

NOT WASHED AWAY.—Parsons' flouring mill on the Tualatin near Forest Grove is not washed away as has been reported. It still [illegible], but is a good deal injured by the floods. All the bridges on the Tualatin and its numerous tributaries save three or four are gone. The new bridge between Hillsboro and Forest Grove, which has just been completed at great cost still stands, though the water was up to its floor. Tyler's bridge is safe, the drift which was above it and threatening to carry it away having been dislodged.

[illegible] COURT.—The case of the State vs. Wm. Fox, John Holt and John [illegible], charged with breaking open a trunk and [illegible] larceny, was taken up yesterday afternoon, and some progress made in the preliminary examination, when the case was continued till this morning. The accused were all remanded to jail. The testimony thus far does not seem to strongly [illegible] Fox in the crime, and it is probable that the [illegible] will not detain him, except as a witness.

PURCHASE OF A SAFE.—In pursuance of instructions from the City Council, the Committee on Accounts and [illegible] Expenses, yesterday purchased a safe for the use of [illegible] Auditor's office. It costs $400 delivered in the office. An ordinance providing $300 for that purpose was passed by [illegible] at its meeting, December 11th. The deficiency of $100 will probably be provided by another ordinance. The safe purchased, is a large one which was [illegible] in use in the county clerk's office.

[illegible] SUBSCRIPTIONS.—We learn that not only stock is already being subscribed to the Oregon Central, but that the property holders are donating city property quite liberally. Four blocks, estimated at many thousands cash, present value, have already been contributed. The agent of the company is here for the purpose of canvassing the city, and will stay until everybody has been [illegible] and hopefully converted to railroad ideas. Nobody need leave town on his account, as he expects to [illegible].

TEACHERS' CONVENTION AT BUTTEVILLE.—The teachers of Marion county will hold the semi-annual term of their County Institute at Butteville on Thursday, the 26th. At the last meeting, at Salem, nearly every teacher employed in the county was present and the proceedings were reported as very interesting. The friends of [illegible] school [illegible] at Butteville offer to throw open their doors for the entertainment of all who may attend.

PARADE OF ENGINES.—On the occasion of the [illegible] Protection Engine Co.'s steam fire engine, on Christmas day, there will be a parade of that and No. 2's steam engine. We are informed that during the day, No. 4 will have a lunch spread at their engine house for the entertainment of visitors. What with lunch, parade and housing of the [illegible] and the ball in the evening, next Wednesday will be rather a large day for No. 4's boys.

DETAINED LETTERS.—The following letters are retained in the Post Office for pre-payment: Miss Maria S. Tanner, Oakland, Ogn.; P. J. McGowan, W. T.; Rev. J. H. Adams, Buena Vista, Ogn.; D. E. Josephi, S. F.; Wm. B. Parker, Oakland; Capt. Jas. Frain, Victoria.

DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS.—The Good Templars are engaged in decorating their Hall, over the Council Chamber, for the approaching holidays. The lodges contemplate having some Christmas ceremonies, but of what nature, we are not definitely informed.

UNITED BRETHREN.—The almanac for 1868, issued by the United Brethren General Conference, states the membership in the Oregon and Cascade conferences at 377, which is a considerable increase within the last year.

WILLAMETTE PRODUCE.—The steamer Alert brought down, yesterday from Oregon City, 2 sacks bacon, 16 sks fruit, 4 boxes grapes, 40 boxes apples, 58 bags oats, 60 bags wheat, and 500 qr sks flour.

SAILED.—The schooner Alaska for Victoria, left her dock yesterday, bound to sea. She had been unexpectedly detained for a couple of days.

AUCTION SALE OF JEWELRY.—Mr. A. B. Richardson will continue the sale of Messrs. Goldsmith Bros.' stock of watches, jewelry, etc., this day at 11 o'clock. Although immense quantities have been sold during the past two days, the stock remaining seems inexhaustible. The special attention of the trade is called to this sale.

THE MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE CO.—This company has an annual income of nearly $2,000,000; issues policies on more reasonable terms than most companies; all policy-holders participate in the annual dividends; all policies after three years are unforfeitable. Policies are issued for half cash premiums, the other half being taken in the note of the insurer, at 6¼ per cent. interest, the dividend taking care of the principal. This is a perfectly safe mode for the company and the most favorable to insurers, of any of the many plans adopted. The Co. has less working expense than any of the leading Insurance Companies, being only $10 84 on each $100 receipts. The dividends of last year amounted to 50 per cent. Comment is unnecessary. If you are not insured, go to C P. Ferry, Agent, and get a policy.

A MAGNIFICENT STOCK OF GOODS.—Messrs. Hayward, Coleman & Co., who are doing business in the O. S. N. Co.'s brick block, on Front street, have on hand now decidedly the most extensive and magnificent stock of crockery, glassware and fancy articles in that line ever opened in this city. Their China, Bohemian, Egyptian, medallion, plated and fancy glassware, are beyond all comparison superior in richness to anything ever brought here. There is an immense variety, too, from which to make selections. As the firm does a retail as well as a wholesale business, we cannot suggest a better place to go for Holiday presents. Purchasers can find anything they want from massive and elegant plated tea-sets, to the most unpretentious crockery sets, or toys. The ladies should, by all means, call and examine the goods. They would be delighted.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE LADIES.—Just received, per steamer Oriflamme, a splendid lot of the most elegant Furs ever brought to this place. Also, some beautiful Velvet Cloaks, and several other articles suitable for Christmas presents. For particulars, call on Mrs. C. Levy, 39 First street.

CAPITOL, OLYMPIA, Dec. 11th, 1867.

DR. GADES, Portland—Sir: I have been in the habit of using the "HENLEY ROYAL BALSAM" in my family, who reside at Wallula, Walla Walla county, W. T. I am now at Olympia, attending the present session of the Legislature, and the climate is so different from that of Walla Walla county that I have taken cold, and I have endeavored to purchase some of the medicine here but was unable to do so. Please send a bottle up immediately by mail. I have used nothing else in my family and cannot get along without it. Yours truly,

J. M. VANSYCKLE.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

Just Cause for being Alarmed.—When a Cough has been running for a long time, and you begin to feel a pain settling in upon your lungs, attended with tightness across the chest, it is high time that you should awaken to the danger of your disease, which is fast running into Consumption. Now, before it is too late, use ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM, which will cure the disease, and all will be well with you. For sale by the Dealers in Family Medicines generally.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or

PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, Dec 20, 1867.

Since our last report there has been a considerable decline in gold in the New York Gold market, the price having touched 133⅝ on the 14th, since which time it has fluctuated between 133⅞ and 137½, but closing at our last dates at 134½ on the 16th. The market has been feverish, manifesting plainly the tremendous efforts of the bulls of Wall street to arrest the downward tendency. Legal tenders are rather quiet at 74½ buying and 75c selling. U. S. 7-30's are quoted in New York at 104⅛; 5-20's at 107⅛.

Of the general financial condition of the Pacific coast, the Alta of the 13th says: "The increase of capital on this coast is very rapid, and the fact is more distinctly realized if we look back ten years and consider the number of capitalists who were lenders, and the rates obtained for money as compared with what exists now. There was then little or no competition and banking profit was very large. Year by year the volume of local capital has increased, and notwithstanding the great necessity there is for the employment of capital for reproductive purposes, the supply has outrun the demand, principally from the want of a free supply of labor to employ capital effectively. The great natural wealth of the country has steadily increased, notwithstanding the drawback of an occasional drought, and capital has come in for employment from the outside until competition has cut down the profits to very low rates. Almost monthly there is an increase in the volume of money employed at steadily decreasing rates." The remarks of the Alta are applicable in this State, except in this: that the demand for capital for investments in permanent improvements, manufactures, etc., has for several years been fully equal to the supply, and accumulations beyond current needs, therefore have seldom occurred. At present while there is no particular scarcity of money, there is by no means an over supply, and lenders, therefore, obtain a fair per cent. for loans, on unexceptionable security.

Tr[illegible] shipments to the East, are made at present on very easy terms for the shippers, no charge being made from San Francisco, by the P. M. S. S. Co., except the bare one-fourth per cent. charged by the Panama Railroad for transit service. The Opposition line of steamers carry treasure upon the same liberal terms. This latter line began service by reducing the freight on flour to New York a dollar per barrel—say $2 50 as against $3 50 charged by the Pacific Mail S. S. Co.

The jobbing trade of this city for the last week has been rather light, as compared with the last two or three weeks, though contrasting favorably with the corresponding period of last year. The high waters of the Willamette have prevented arrivals of produce, except such as may have been in store at Oregon City before the rise [illegible]. For the same reason, there have been no shipments of goods to the interior of the valley, until yesterday, when a few very fair orders went forward. There is still a small trade with the Columbia river country.

The produce market is dull, and there seems to be no [illegible] of an improvement. The only move[illegible] the week are the [illegible] of portions of the great supplies on hand, by the Oriflamme for San Francisco and the Alaska for Victoria. Messrs. Sevier & Co. sent by the Oriflamme 500 bbls Imperial in gunnies, consigned to New York. They reduce their quotations this week to $7. All other brands [illegible] without [illegible], but the quotations are nominal. Mill feed continues firm at quotations with a prospect of a slight advance. There is nothing else in the list which [illegible].

The Alta of the 20th says: The total arrivals of Oregon grain and flour since July 1st reach 18,749 sacks of wheat and 100,855 qr. sks flour, say together 118,333 [illegible] may meet the distillation and some [illegible] flour on hand. The apparent stock now [illegible] than last year, and has continued [illegible] the first w[illegible] in November. This has been due to the [illegible] decline in receipts as compared with last year.

The same paper says: The receipts of wheat since the 1st of May [illegible] as follows with those of the [illegible] last year:

	Sacks.	Value.
1866, six [illegible]	1,063,600	$2,161,212
1867, six [illegible]	312,480	781,218
[illegible]	771,120	$1,385,997

The [illegible] stock has declined 300,000 sacks, releasing $800,000 of [illegible], and the [illegible] for receipts has been [illegible] that there is as large a surplus as last year. The state of the crop is as [illegible].

	Sacks.	Qr. Sks.
Total [illegible]	5,214,106	1,206,196
[illegible] July 1st to Dec. 11th	3,812,499	535,070
To come [illegible]	1,351,607	670,726

This amount is equal to, in [illegible], 2,060,000 [illegible] 115,000 short tons. The chances are, however, that a good deal [illegible] than this really exists.

The Alta [illegible] a decline of 25 per cent. in rates for [illegible] of the [illegible] which [illegible] two or three years.

[illegible] line of [illegible] put on by the North [illegible] Co. is creating [illegible] while [illegible] circles. Already it has [illegible] to [illegible] freight charges. Flour now goes to New York from San Francisco for $2 per bbl, by the [illegible], and by sail around Cape Horn, for $1 50. The [illegible] in regard to the matter: "The extent of future [illegible] somewhat upon the [illegible] to be held for officers on the 16th inst. at New York, since that is the time at which the meeting of the P. M. S. S. Co. is to take place by adjournment. [illegible] the incumbents [illegible] we may then look for lively [illegible] the opposition will be rife—passengers and [illegible] will be carried "dirt cheap"—it will be [illegible] to travel than to stay at home. Besides we [illegible] to the [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co., and also a [illegible] continuance of the Nicaragua line."

Weekly Retail Family Market.

PORTLAND, Dec 20, 1867.

Business is very quiet, considering that the holidays are so close at hand. The fruit market languishes and the tendency is to lower prices. Provisions remain at our last week's quotations. Butter is a little higher. Eggs are still tending down. Poultry is in active demand, particularly turkeys, which are scarce and high. Game has almost disappeared from the market, owing, no doubt, to the late storms. A fresh supply now would be eagerly sought after. Vegetables are still advancing, the supply rather limited, and quality of most, rather inferior.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT!

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING PURchased the "UNION BOOK & JOB PRINTING OFFICE," of T. F. McElroy, propose to issue a Weekly Newspaper at Olympia, W. T., on or about the 1st of December next, to be called THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT.

The paper will be devoted to the Agricultural, Mechanical, Commercial, Mineral, Moral and Political interests of the whole Territory.

In Politics we shall uphold and sustain the Union Principles of the Nation, at the same time reserving the right to be INDEPENDENT on all subjects, that we may be better able to discuss all matters in their true light, and give credit wherever it is due.

We trust our friends will circulate this prospectus generally, and assist us in getting a good list of subscribers, Advertisements, or Job Work. We also invite correspondence from all sections of the Territory.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT will be issued every Saturday, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Hoping to receive a share of public favor, we unfurl our banner to the breeze.

CARD.

DR BARLOW J SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] fully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the affects of secret indulgences, or from virus [illegible] into the system. Look at their pallid, [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal [illegible], the [illegible] sequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, [illegible] tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never failed effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complaints and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppression, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER

This valuable preparation, containing, in a highly concentrated form, all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently ac[illegible] period.
